Services we provide

Distribution

Distribution Our distribution and logistic partners are strong players in the region, known for their efficient and far-reaching network.

Investment

The safe and efficient distribution and conversion of energy around the world requires extensive infrastructure; from storage terminals and ships, to pipelines and refineries.

Engineering Services

Our team is backed with several years of experiences in supplement of engineering equipment and services focused on providing best services and equipment for its oil and gas industries clients.

Storage & Warehousing

We have access to storage in strategic locations all over the world, built to exact requirements in order to store specific products safely.

Equipment Services

We are specialized in downstream requirement for supply of precision Instruments, Transmitters, Recorders, Flow Computers, Metering Systems, Gauges, Telecommunication equipment and cabling, Terminal Loading Automation and SCADA System, Valves, Control Valves, Pumps, Gas Compressors, Filters and Accessories.

Supply

We are specialized in sourcing and supplying quality products from genuine producers in the Middle East and other countries around the world to our business partners and customers in different industries.

Renewables

Wind & Solar

Renewables are an important part of the energy mix. They have reached an efficiency and scale where they can be used commercially, both in localised and large-scale grid projects. Over time, energy demand will shift from hydrocarbons to power where solar and wind are well placed to compete.
